Why Women Are Despondent

Why Women Are Despondent. Are not women naturally delicate? Yes, certainly, but a woman's mind is essentially different from a man's. More delicate, more sensitive and more exacting. Women in delicate health are more dependent on their health and more despondent. When a woman develops a nervous ailment, she is more despondent. WILL OF SENATOR
CROW IS PLACED ON FILE IN UNIONTOWN

The last will and testament of the late United States Senator William E. Crow, dated March 4, 1922, during the time he was a patient at the Mercy Hospital, Pittsburg, was probated in Uniontown. There were but a few items. After bequeathing $5,000 to his namesake and grandson, William Evans Crow II, and $5,000 to the Mc-Clellandtown Presbyterian Church at Church Hill, he directed his executors to dispose of all or part of his personal and real estate as deemed advisable and after all debts and expenses had been paid to distribute the residue of the estate according to the intestate laws of the Commonwealth.

The will was typewritten. It was signed William Evans Crow. Ordinarily the senator signed his name W. E. Crow. While the character of a residence, as his former signature, there was the apparent uncertainty and lack of the freedom of hand. The will was witnessed by his brother, John M. Crow, and his law partner and associate, Public Service Commissioner, S. Ray Shelby. Friends of the late senator say that it was significant that he should remember the old church and his grandson and namesake, both very dear to his heart. Ada Curry Crow, widow of Henry Crow, older son of the senator, and the Fayette Title & Trust Company of Uniontown were named as executors of his will.

There were six items in the will in substance as follows:
First Item—I, William Evans Crow, being of sound mind, do hereby order and direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses shall be paid by my executors hereinafter named as soon as conveniently may be after my decease.

Second Item—I give and bequeath to my grandson and namesake, William Evans Crow II, the sum of $5,000.

Third Item—I give and bequeath to the trustees of the Mc-Clellandtown Presbyterian Church at Church Hill the sum of $5,000 for general church purposes.

Fourth Item—The second and third items shall be free from payment of collateral, direct, inheritance or any other taxes or commissions, these to be borne by the residue of my estate.

Fifth Item—I do hereby authorize and empower my said executors or their successors in trust to sell, dispose of and convey in fee simple all or any part of my personal or real estate, either by public or private sale or sales without any liability of the purchasers, for the application, non application or misapplication of the purchase money and I also give my said executors full power to convert into money any or all of my personal or real estate or have same distributed in kind or may be deemed advisable and after the payment of all my just debts, expenses and the bequests herein recited and taxes, the residue of my estate shall pass in accordance with the intestate laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Sixth Item—I hereby name Ada Curry Crow, Evans Curry Crow and the Fayette Title & Trust Company of Uniontown as executors of this my last will and testament.

In Memoriam
Whereas, God in His Almighty wisdom and providence has removed from our society our faithful and loyal president, Mrs. Mae Perry.

Therefore, Be it resolved that we, the members of the Ladies' Aid Society, extend to the bereaved husband our heart felt sympathy and commiseration to the one who comes to him the broken hearted, and comes the fainting soul to cheer.

Who gives us sunshine for our sadness.

And beauty for ashes here.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved husband and a copy sent to the Methodist Recorder; also a copy placed on the minutes. Signed, Mrs. J. H. Lamberton, Miss Martha Babbage, Mrs. Robert Boyd. Advertisement—11-11.

THE SOISSON.

THE MOTORISTS EPITAPH.

When I shall quit the steering wheel
And leave the left-hand seat forever
When never more my good right foot
Shall press upon the starting lever,
When in the silent hours I ride
If you shall follow with the mourners,
Say this, and it shall be my pride
I never swung around the corners.

When I depart life's thoroughfare
And quit the turmoil of the traffic,
Though little shall I leave my notes
Deserving praise or censure,
Still you might say this thing for me:
To drive with care was ever my way;
However hurried I might be,
I never thought I owned a highway.

I never risked my neighbor's life
By crowding him in busy places,
Or filled his breast with hate and strife
By thinking I was one of those.
And when a boulevard I entered
I stopped, although not many do it,
And waited till the way was clear,
I never tried to beat men to it.

When I shall leave the driver's seat
And quit the steering wheel forever,
Say this, on boulevard or street:
I pulled no tricks I thought were clever.

When I depart this worldly part,
If you perhaps recall me kindly
Say this, for it is my only boast:
I never turned a corner badly.

Big Crowd of Fans Expected At Fayette Field Saturday

Homestead Grays Will Be Here In Full of Team's Strength.

With favorable weather an outpouring of baseball fans is expected at Fayette field Saturday afternoon for the return game of the Homestead Grays with the Connellsville Independents. With subsidence of the City League and little doing in the Church League, fans have had their appetites whetted for a real game of ball and this is what is promised all who go to the park tomorrow afternoon.

Both the Grays and the Cokers have been going at fast clips. The Homestead team will have with it its former star players, several of whom were absent during the greater part of the summer. Owens probably will pitch and this alone will mean that the local must do their best in order to come out on top. Andy Kozar will shoulder the burden for the Independents.

The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock.

Joseph J. Thompson, manager of the Connellsville Independents, has been quoted as to whether the team wishes to play its elimination game in the series arranged by the Greater Pittsburgh Baseball Association at Fayette field and has replied in the affirmative. It also has been suggested that the locals meet Scrabble, West Newton or Youngwood. Scrabble has been given preference.

Deprived of the opportunity of doing so on Wednesday, because the home management took advantage of a technical claim of "wet grounds," the Pittsburgh Pirates cleaned up with the Quakers in Philadelphia yesterday, 14-1. Brooklyn trounced the Cubs and the Pirates were boosted to third place, with a margin of one point. The Cardinals greenhorned their hold on first place by wallowing in Boston while the Giants were submitting to another defeat at the hands of the Cincinnati Reds.

The Lehigh Club will play Morrell at Morrell, this evening at 8:30 o'clock. Tomorrow afternoon, Lehigh will go to Smithfield for a second game with the Smithfield Independents. Some time ago the locals were posed out in a 10-inning fracas with the Smithfield outfit.

Baseball has slithered down to next to nothing in Connellsville. The Church League has a game now and then, but otherwise there is not much doing. Even the sand batters have subsided. All of which tends to increase interest in the game Saturday afternoon at Fayette field between the Homestead Grays, crack colored team of Western Pennsylvania, and the Connellsville Independents.

DAME FASHION has assured an entirely new role for the Fall of 1922.

Chamois Knit Dresses At $25

Chamois Knit is a very new Fall material. It is as durable as tricot, but a far better looking fabric. It comes in navy and black (which are to be Fall's favorite colors). The models feature new skirt lengths and many another new fashion touch.

New Modes in Canton Crepe $25 to $49.75

Again navy and black is featured in frocks that imitate the classic costumes of ancient Greece. The majority are draped models and Paris is responsible for them.
